Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: Italian . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Procida era ormai vicina. Il traghetto viro per prepararsi a entrare nel porto. Il nonno, come era solito fare quando arrivavano a quel punto, si alzo e si avvicino alla balaustra del ponte. Scrutava il lungo pontile che delimitava lo spazio di mare di Marina Grande. Quella volta, senza distogliere lo sguardo, aggiunse un pezzo alla storia, raccontando a Gabriele che, allora, ogni volta che tornavano o ripartivano da Procida, Margherita correva su quella striscia di scogli e asfalto per salutarli. Così Gabriele comprese che quello sguardo, oltre alla memoria, coltivava un illusione. Un racconto tra generazioni, una storia di non amore lunga 50 anni ma anche un romanzo sociale della contemporaneità. Tra verità assolute e verità di parte, nessuna delle quali definitiva, passioni civili e passioni individuali, Gabriele percorre un lungo viaggio a ritroso nella storia della propria famiglia, per scoprirne i drammi e le gioie, e trovare, anche, le ragioni della propria identità.
