DC BOOKS, United States, 2000. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 192 x 136 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The writing of poetry is most often a calling of youth -- passionate, distracted, purblind -- rather than that of age, with its clarity, credible regret, and wisdom. What we may need more of is a senior poetry, a poetry of genuine felt experience that is for everybody, not just Seniors. Lamonte Palmer s work fits this description eloquently. In All I Want Is a Walk-On Part, Palmer, in his seventies, faces full-on the big questions -- of Love, of the difficulty and rewards of relationships with others, of work -- and seeks the answers and the redemption that prove available.
