HAT are you doing there, Lily; I have been seeking you for the last half hour I am watching the sun set, and predicting a most beautiful day for our wedding to-morrow. Come up the mound, Basil, and look at that fiery globe sinking down behind the distant Cheddars. I do not like the idea of a gloomy weddingday. I hold as superstitiously as ever to the old distich--Happy is the bride that the sun shines on! If I remember aright, my Lily, our wedding-day was all showers and sunshine. One moment clouds, that seemed to threaten waterspouts, darkened the hills, and the next the whole scene was lost in a flood of dazzling light. Well! so far, our married life has been strictly in keeping with the aspect of that day; only my poor patient, trusting Lily, I...
