Packard for the brilliant, interesting and instructive address delivered in the American Institute Hall, at the opening of the Sixty-first Exhibition of the American Institute, and that Mr. Packard be requested to furnish a copy of his address for publication. Resolved: That the above resolution be spread in full upon the Minutes of the Board, and that a copy be forwarded to Professor Packard. John W. Chambers, Secretary. 101 East 23rd street, New York. October 21, 1892. Gentlemen: Your characterization of my address is not as I would word it; but as you have the courage to print the address, I ought not to complain. Whoever reads it can put his own estimate upon it. Your request flatters me, and I gladly comply with it. I only wish the address was better, but as that would require another person to prepare it, I accept the situation and thank you most kindly.
