 Sylvia Donovan is emotionally wounded from the unexpected death of her husband and still haunted by their last conversation: his request for a divorce and his confession of love for another woman. Her husband gone, her only daughter off to college, Sylvia faces the challenges of learning to live alone and move on with her life. Vince Wilshire, enchanted with Sylvia, is more than willing to do what it takes to capture the heart of the hurting and untrusting Sylvia. Can he help her forget the past and make her believe in love again Excerpt: She shifted the car into park and killed the engine. If you need a ride home, let me know. A hand closed around her upper arm and she glanced over at Vince. He released her immediately. Im sorry about the bad attitude this morning. I didnt sleep very well last night. I keep having. . . He shook his head as if he decided against sharing details of his dreams. Dont worry about it. I didnt sleep too well either so...
