L: Vallandigham, With the Proceedings and Resolutions of the Democratic Meeting Held in the City Hall, Dayton, Ohio, Monday Evening, Oct, 29, 1855 After some preliminary remarks explanatory of the object of the meeting, and the reasons why it was proper and expedient thus early to discuss before the people the great question which must make up the chief issue in the campaign of 1856, and to organize preparatory thereto - Mr. Vallandigham said that he proposed as the text, or rubric, of what he had to say to-night, the following inquiries: - Why has the Democratic Party suffered defeat in Ohio? Why is it so Greatly Disorganized? What will Restore it to Sound Doctrine and Discipline, and Therefore to Power and Usefulness? These, Mr. President, are grave questions. I propose to answer them plainly -boldly - not as a partizan, but as a patriot; and for the opinions which I shall this night avow, I alone am responsible. I speak not to please, but to instruct, to warn, to arouse, and...
